ADVERTISING SPECS:

Preferred format is .gif or animated .gif or .jpg (RGB for web applications), file size less than 75K.

Sections are the ten major categories in which companies are listed (eg Exploration & Production, Drilling Contractors, Equipment Suppliers, Offshore Services, etc.). Activity Codes are more than 380 specific product or service classifications found in the Buyers Guide. Subscribers use both to search for companies; if you select Run-of-Section or Run-of-Activity Code, your advertisement appears on every results page that appears for a particular search.

If you desire exclusivity throughout a section or activity code, the rate is doubled.

All online advertisements include your logo at your listing and a link to your website and/or email at no additional charge.
