Hart's Sandrine Dixson-Declève Chairs Key Session at World Biofuels Markets 2009

HOUSTON, TX (March 16, 2009) – Sandrine Dixson-Declève, executive director, Europe & Africa for Hart Energy Consulting will moderate the Keynote Plenary Session “Global Leaders – Towards the Sustainable Bio Future” on March 17, the first day of the World Biofuels Markets Congress 2009.

As moderator, Dixson-Declève, will bring her world renowned international expertise to direct the discussions of a panel of leaders in the global biofuels industry that includes activist Sir Bob Geldof; Lord Browne, director of Riverstone Holdings and former CEO of BP; Minister Andrea Correa do Lago, Department of Energy, Ministry of Foreign Relations, Brazil; Dr. Hermann Scheer, president of the International Forum on Renewable Energies and Member of Parliament for Germany; and Dr. Zoran Stančić, deputy director general of Directorate-General Research for the European Commission.

“This is a tremendous honor, both for Sandrine and for Hart, to have Sandrine moderating a panel featuring such prominent figures in the alternative energy industry,” said Richard A. Eichler, president and chief executive officer of Hart Energy Publishing. “With her experience working with such esteemed International players as OPEC, the UN, ADB as well as EU policymakers, Sandrine will be well able to represent Hart’s broad industry knowledge at this event.”

The three-day congress will address all issues facing the biofuels industry, from sustainability to fuel quality, and at the event, Ula Szalkowska, manager of Hart’s International Fuel Quality Center for Europe & Africa will deliver a presentation on the importance of quality assurance across all biofuels.
