

Enjoy the new e-news edition of Midstream Monitor that will be delivered to your inbox every Friday by 3 pm (Eastern). If you have any questions, please email me at fnieto@hartenergy.com.

DCP Midstream's Historical Advantage

A legacy dating back nearly 90 years has provided the DCP enterprise with unprecedented growth opportunities in the midstream.

Read More

Reaching For Zero

In a conference call with members of the media on Sept. 30, American Petroleum Institute (API) President and CEO Jack Gerard outlined comments the association presented later that day to the U.S. Department of Transportation (DOT).

Read More

Crude-By-Rail Traffic Still Climbing

Rail-shipped crude oil volumes may decline as new and repurposed pipeline infrastructure comes online. But crude-by-rail (CBR) is not dropping just yet.

Read More

Linn Energy Divests $2.3 Billion In Assets To Fund Devon Energy Deal

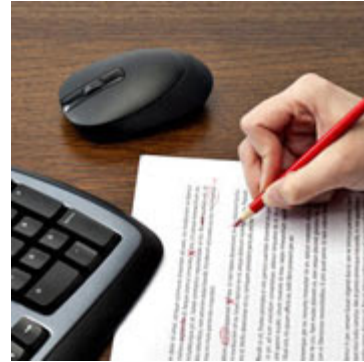

Houston MLP looks to reduce capital intensity and decline rate in 2015.

Read More

Frac Spread: Propane Prices Improve, But Corrections Could Be Coming

While the rest of the NGL barrel (bbl) has experienced price depreciations related to the shoulder season and decreased values for West Texas Intermediate (WTI) crude oil, propane prices improved the first week of October based on seasonal and LPG export demand.

View Frac Spread

More Top Stories

Dominion Midstream Launches IPO

Union Pacific Will Move Forward With Proposed Texas Rail Yard

Targa Resources Partners Announces Permian, Williston Expansion Plans

US Agency Awards \$324-Million Loan Guarantee for LNG Ships

Pembina Pipeline To Build Diluent Terminal